2023-24 ANNUAL REPORT for the Adelaide Film Festival

From the Chief Executive

Adelaide Film Festival (AFF) is South Australia's premier film festival.

The AFF organisation celebrates courageous films and filmmakers; curating and presenting a world acclaimed festival each October, alongside various year-round activities that expand audiences, develop, support and engage the filmmaking community, while also building a thriving organisation to successfully deliver on its unique mission. AFF's mission is:

- To present a festival which celebrates and explores contemporary Australian and international screen culture with a unique program of screenings and special events, which aim to increase audience knowledge and participation.
- To increase and stimulate innovative and new screen production through the provision of equity finance for work premiering at the festival.
- To raise the profile of arts and screen culture in South Australia for audiences and practitioners.

AFF is continuing to go from strength to strength.

A positive feedback loop or 'snowball' effect is being observed as AFF continues to gain momentum since annual presentation of the festival was enabled since 2022. Continuous enhancement of the value proposition for South Australian and broader audiences, as well as for the filmmaking community, has been observed by market research findings. This has been coupled by increased media exposure and market presence, alongside enhanced sponsorships, growing philanthropic donations and box office growth.

Just one indicator of growth was that AFF 2023 established a new box office record, with more than a 17% increase on the prior year, continuing the significant growth trajectory witnessed by each festival edition. Notably, the AFF2023 event generated a surplus achieved by careful management (the overall result masked in the statutory accounts by the timings of grant revenues). Increased momentum has been underpinned by moving from being a 'start-up' or biennial 'pop-up', to a more sustainable event proposition and the stabilisation of the core team. These factors have assisted in achieving increased investment from and connectivity with stakeholders including our audience, filmmakers and industry, sponsors, the South Australian government and private donors who have been essential to AFFs ongoing success.

AFF's philanthropic donor circle has grown to become a vital aspect of the organisation. The AFF Luminaries are passionate advocates of the work undertaken by AFF and we are most grateful for their support, including their financial donations which are tax deductible. We invite anyone to become an AFF Luminary – information is available via adelaidefilmfestival.org or by phoning +61 (8) 8394 2505.

AFF 2023, at a glance

AFF 2023 was presented 18 – 29 October. The festival comprised 141 films from 42 countries, presented as 198 sessions in five venues across Adelaide including The Piccadilly, Palace Nova Eastend, Capri Theatre, The Mercury and Odeon Semaphore. Enhanced by 28 world premieres, 29 Australian premieres and 31 South Australian films, the program was received with much buzz and enthusiasm by audiences with a record number of sold-out sessions generating a high, addictive energy translating to fabulous festival experiences for stakeholders, including filmmakers and audiences alike.

Opening with the Australian premiere of The Royal Hotel (dir. Kitty Green) direct from its world premiere at Toronto International Film Festival a few weeks earlier, audiences were satiated with a touch of red-carpet glamour from the outset with director Kitty Green and actor Hugo Weaving marking the occasion with their presence alongside others from the production. The festival vibe remained high over the two weeks that followed with the presentation of three galas, numerous meet the filmmaker events, talks and premiere moments that saw audiences connect with films for the first time, often with the filmmakers and other official guests of the festival present.

South Australians can take great pride in the fact AFF continues to be distinguished internationally through its equity investment in new productions via the AFF Investment Fund (AFFIF) – supporting stories that take our culture to the big screen, enabling us to see ourselves in a new light while also representing us world-wide. Since its inception in 2005, AFFIF has supported more than 150 projects – about half of which are feature length films. AFF 2023 saw eight new features unveiled at the festival. These included the world premieres of Speedway (dirs. Luke Rynderman and Adam Kamien), My Name's Ben Folds I Play Piano (dir. Scott Hicks), Her Name is Nanny Nellie (dir. Daniel King), Housekeeping for Beginners (dir. Goran Stolevski), Isla's Way (dir. Marion Pilowsky), Rewards for the Tribe (dir. Rhys Graham), The Musical Mind a Portrait in Process (dir. Scott Hicks) and You Should Have Been Here Yesterday (dir. Jolyon Hoff). AFFIF also invested in two short films: Mating Call (dir. Stephanie Jaclyn) and Blame the Rabbit (dir. Elena Carapetis) which premiered as part of the festivals opening night.

The official international competition comprised six fiction and six documentary feature films. The winning films: from Iran, Empty Nets by Behrooz Karamizade is a love story against the odds told in a realist cinematic style was the fiction prize winner. The documentary prize winning film was Egyptian filmmaker Ibrahim Nash'at's extraordinary Hollywood Gate giving unprecedented insight into the contrasting worlds of the US Military and the Taliban. A Jam Factory designed award and cash prize of $10,000 was presented to each director. The competition winners were determined by a prestigious jury of industry professionals: from New York, Hollywood Reporter Chief Critic, David Rooney; directors Kitty Green and Goran Stolevski, Wiradjuri woman, commissioning editor and Academy member Sally Riley, alongside Jogja NETPAC Asian Film Festival Program Director Alexander Matius from Indonesia.

Since 2020, AFF has presented the Change Award for positive social or environmental impact and cinema expressing new directions for humanity. The Award, inclusive of a $5,000 cash prize, was presented to Jane Hammond for Black Cockatoo Crisis for her clear and passionate documentary about the looming extinction of the Black Cockatoos of Western Australia.

The world cinema program was spearheaded by a spotlight on Indonesia, with six films showcased. As part of this program, AFF hosted a delegation of eight filmmakers from Indonesia. The broader program saw representation from 42 countries, highlights including the Palme d'Or winning Anatomy of a Fall (dir. Justine Triet, France), Monster (Hirokazu Kore-eda, Japan), May December (Todd Haynes, US), The Settlers (Felipe Gálvez, Chile/ Argentina), the exceptional Spanish feature 20,000 Species of Bees (Estibals Urresola Solaguren) and If Only I Could Hibernate (Zoljargal Purevdash, Mongolia) to name just a few. These were presented alongside special presentations including Greek 'new-weird' director Christos Nikou's Fingernails and the Australian premieres of Yorgos Lanthimos' Poor Things and British director Andrew Haigh's All of Us Strangers.

Documentaries always have strong representation within the AFF program and in 2023 included titles such as Four Daughters (Kaouther Ben Hania, France/ Tunisia/ Saudi Arabia) and Praying for Armageddon (Tonje Hessen Schei, Norway). The popular music documentary program included titles such as Joan Baez: I am Noise (Karen O'Connor, Miri Navasky, Maeve O'Boyle, US) and Peter Doherty: Stronger in My Own Skin (Katia de Vidas, UK).

South Australian independent films were showcased in a dedicated strand where the world premiere of Emotion is Dead by Pete Williams, centering around Adelaide's Holden factory was a festival breakout.

Short films are an artform in their own right and have long been recognised as a developmental pathway for filmmakers to practice their craft and establish their careers. Shorts were presented prior to select feature films plus four dedicated shorts programs were presented including the Made In SA showcase celebrating works by the next generation of South Australian feature film directors. Standout titles in this program included Stephanie Jaclyn's Mating Call and Derik Lynch and Matthew Thorne's Marungka Tjalatjunu (Dipped in Black).

Industry and community recognition

Each year the AFF Board awards an individual who has made an outstanding contribution to Australian screen culture. Honouring the legacy of former South Australian premier, Don Dunstan, the award honours his legacy. In 2023 the award was presented to Sally Riley. Sally Riley was joined by AFF patron Margaret Pomeranz AM for an in conversation presented in partnership with the Art Gallery of South Australia's Tarnanthi Festival. As noted by distinguished professor Larissa Behrendt AO in an essay she drafted for AFF to commemorate the presentation of the award:

"Sally Riley's legacy goes beyond the content she has commissioned on the screen. It goes to the capacity building of First Nations creatives in the film and television industry and in seeing First nations stories becoming central in the national narrative. This legacy also tracks the move from Indigenous people being peripheral to Australian storytelling, to commanding the stories told about us."

On behalf of the Jim Bettison and Helen James Foundation, for the last decade AFF has administered the Bettison & James Award, inclusive of a $50,000 cash gift to the recipient. In 2023 the award recipient was Ngarrindjeri/Kaurna Elder, Uncle Major 'Moogy' Sumner AM. Uncle Moogy, a world-renowned performer and cultural ambassador is widely recognised within the community and for his substantial community contribution and impact.

Filmmaker and artist development initiatives

Film Lab: New Voices is a low-budget feature film skills development initiative designed to provide a platform for the next generation of diverse, South Australian filmmaking talent. Co-funded by South Australian Film Corporation, Adelaide Film Festival and Screen Australia. In 2023, three project teams were selected from an open call for submissions to participate in the year-long development process. One project will be selected to receive production funding and will premiere as part of AFF 2025. This represents the third iteration of the lab, with prior projects Monolith premiering at AFF 2022 and Lesbian Space Princess due to premiere at AFF 2024.

The AFF EXPAND Lab 2023 brought together 30 of Australia's most daring artists and creative thinkers for a five-day facilitated intensive development process with the objective of cultivating new immersive, large scale and gallery specific moving image works. Guided by Lab mentors including Daniel Crooks, Robert Walton and Amos Gebhardt, Lab participants formed project teams and generated five projects for potential commissioning. The successful project selected to receive $100,000 towards production was 5 Steps for Better Living, Maximum Gains and Manifesting

Your Most Optimum Self by Anna Lindner, Nisa East and Yasemin Sabuncu. The work will premiere as part of AFF2025.

The AFF EXPAND Lab is a collaboration between AFF, Samstag Museum of Art, the Art Gallery of South Australia and Illuminate Adelaide and is supported by principal partner The Balnaves Foundation and Arts South Australia. EXPAND Lab received the Arts SA Ruby Award for Most Outstanding Collaboration at the 2023 Ruby Awards.

Festival bridges and international engagement

AFF x JAFF

Aligned to AFFs strategic objectives, AFF has formed a collaborative partnership with the Jogja NETPAC Asian Film Festival (JAFF), Yogyakarta, Indonesia, with the aim of establishing stronger connectivity between the Australian and Indonesian screen industries and greater cultural understanding.

As part of the partnership, with support from the Australian Government Office for the Arts, an exchange of professional delegates occurred during the respective festivals. AFF hosted a delegation of eight Indonesian filmmakers as part of the 2023 festival, including director Adriayanto Dewo, producer Anggana Basundara Murba, producer Sari Mochtan, director Theogarcia Rumansara, actor Jennifer Aurora, producer Orchida Ramadharia and producer Sigit Septiadi. JAFF hosted a delegation of six Australian filmmakers: producer Anna Vincent, director Colin Cairns, director Rhys Graham, writer/director Granaz Moussavi, producer Brendan Skinner and producer Mitchell Stanley and journalist Stephen A. Russell.

The initiative will see the exchange program continue, and the Australian and Indonesian filmmakers engaged in a developmental lab initiative in Indonesia in 2024.

AFF x Cannes

For the first time, AFF partnered with the Marché du Film, the world's largest film market, presented alongside the prestigious Festival de Cannes. The partnership guaranteed profile within the busy marketplace as part of the Marché's Goes to Cannes program for five new, near-complete South Australian projects seeking international sales or investment. The initiative saw an official delegation of ten South Australian filmmakers participate in the market, networking opportunities and a dedicated program of a dozen roundtable meetings developed by AFF for delegates to hear directly from and connect with senior key international professionals including investors, festival programmers, sales agents and buyers.

The five projects showcased in the Goes to Cannes showcase were Kangaroo Island (dir. Timothy David), Lesbian Space Princess (dirs. Leela Vargehse and Emma Hough-Hobbs), Mockbuster (dir. Anthony Frith), The Iron Winter (dir. Ben Golotta) and With or Without You (dir. Kelly Schilling). The delegation included representatives from each project alongside South Australian practitioners Travis Akbar, Josh Trevorrow, Lisa Scott, Nara Wilson and Matthew Vesley. The initiative was funded by the Department for Premier and Cabinet, AFF and the South Australian Film Corporation with in-kind assistance from Screen Australia,

Year-round audience engagement: AFF Film Club

AFFs agile presentation platform, AFF Film Club enables AFF to maintain connectivity with its audience, filmmakers and distribution partners between festivals. The Film Club is presented at various AFF venues throughout the year, enabling South Australian's to enjoy a taste of the festival intermittently. Titles presented in 2023-24 included the world premiere of The Defenders (dir. Matthew Bate), Shayda (dir. Noora Niasari), the Zone of Interest (Jonathan Glazer) and Kinds of Kindness (dir. Yorgos Lanthimos).

AFF 2024

At the time of writing this report, the team was busy preparing for the launch of AFF 2024, due to take place 23 October – 3 November 2024 at venues across Adelaide. We look forward to welcoming you at the festival.

Strategies implemented to control and prevent fraud

- The CEO and Finance and Governance Manager report to the Audit, Finance & Risk Sub Committee, which meets at least 2 times per year. The primary objective of the Audit, Finance & Risk Sub Committee is to assist the AFF to understand and manage its organisational risks and assist the AFF Board in fulfilling its responsibilities for overseeing the organisation's financial reporting process, the system of internal control, the audit process, and the process for monitoring compliance with relevant laws, regulations, and codes.
- Quarterly reports are prepared for the Department of Premier and Cabinet, comparing budgeted income and expenditure to actuals. Updated forecasts are also provided as and when necessary.
- The management team undergoes reviews of expenditure and risk management plans, and these are maintained through team and Board assessment.
- A range of strategies and internal controls have been put in place to manage potential risk, with purchase order systems and an internal audit program, as described in the policies and procedures.
- Any external audit recommendations are implemented as a matter of priority.

To the members of the Board Adelaide Film Festival

I have audited the financial report of the Adelaide Film Festival for the financial year ended 30 June 2024.

In my opinion, the accompanying financial report gives a true and fair view of the financial position of the Adelaide Film Festival as at 30 June 2024, its financial performance and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with relevant Treasurer's Instructions issued under the provisions of the Public Finance and Audit Act 1987 and Australian Accounting Standards – Simplified Disclosures.

The financial report comprises:

- a Statement of Comprehensive Income for the year ended 30 June 2024
- a Statement of Financial Position as at 30 June 2024
- a Statement of Changes in Equity for the year ended 30 June 2024
- a Statement of Cash Flows for the year ended 30 June 2024
- notes, comprising material accounting policy information and other explanatory information
- a Certificate from the Chair, Chief Executive Officer/Creative Director, and the Finance and Governance Manager.

Basis for opinion

I conducted the audit in accordance with the Public Finance and Audit Act 1987 and Australian Auditing Standards. My responsibilities under those standards are further described in the 'Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial report' section of my report. I am independent of the Adelaide Film Festival. The Public Finance and Audit Act 1987 establishes the independence of the Auditor-General. In conducting the audit, the relevant ethical requirements of APES 110 Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (including Independence Standards) have been met. I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my opinion.

Responsibilities of the Chief Executive Officer/Creative Director and the members of the Board for the financial report

The Chief Executive Officer/Creative Director is responsible for the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view in accordance with relevant Treasurer's Instructions issued under the provisions of the Public Finance and Audit Act 1987 and Australian Accounting Standards – Simplified Disclosures, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view and that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial report, the Chief Executive Officer/Creative Director is responsible for assessing the entity's ability to continue as a going concern, taking into account any policy or funding decisions the government has made which affect the continued existence of the entity. The Chief Executive Officer/Creative Director is also responsible for disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the assessment indicates that it is not appropriate.

The members of the Board are responsible for overseeing the entity's financial reporting process.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial report

As required by section 31(1)(b) of the Public Finance and Audit Act 1987 and section 13(3) of the Schedule to the Public Corporations Act 1993, I have audited the financial report of the Adelaide Film Festival for the financial year ended 30 June 2024.

My objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial report as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes my opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of this financial report.

As part of an audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards, I exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. I also:

- identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control
- obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Adelaide Film Festival's internal control
- evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Chief Executive Officer/Creative Director
- conclude on the appropriateness of the Chief Executive Officer/Creative Director's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the entity's ability to continue as a going concern. If I conclude that a material uncertainty exists, I am required to draw attention in my auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial report or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify the opinion. My conclusion is based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of the auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause an entity to cease to continue as a going concern
- evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial report, including the disclosures, and whether the financial report represents the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

My report refers only to the financial report described above and does not provide assurance over the integrity of electronic publication by the entity on any website nor does it provide an opinion on other information which may have been hyperlinked to/from the report.

I communicate with the Chief Executive Officer/Creative Director and members of the Board about, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that I identify during the audit.

Note 1 Basis of Financial Statements, Objectives and Activities

The Adelaide Film Festival (AFF) is a subsidiary of the Minister for the Arts established under the Regulations pursuant to the Public Corporations Act 1993.

The financial statements and accompanying notes include all the controlled activities of AFF. AFF does not control any other entity and has no interests in unconsolidated structured entities.

Basis of Preparation

These financial statements have been prepared in compliance with section 23 of the Public Finance and Audit Act 1987.

The financial statements are general purpose financial statements. The accounts have been prepared in accordance with relevant Australian Accounting Standards and comply with Treasurer's Instructions and Accounting Policy Statements promulgated under the provisions of the Public Finance and Audit Act 1987.

AFF has applied relevant Australian Accounting Standards with simplified disclosure requirements that are applicable to not-for-profit entities, as AFF is a notfor-profit entity. Australian Accounting Standards and interpretations that have recently been issued or amended but are not yet effective, have not been adopted by AFF for the period ending 30 June 2024.

The financial statements have been prepared based on a 12 month period and presented in Australian currency. The historical cost convention is used unless a different measurement basis is specifically disclosed in the note associated with the item measured on a different basis.

Assets and liabilities that are to be sold, consumed or realised as part of the normal operating cycle have been classified as current assets or current liabilities. All other assets and liabilities are classified as non-current.

AFF is not subject to income tax. AFF is liable for goods and services tax (GST). Income, expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of GST except:

- when the GST incurred on a purchase of goods or services is not recoverable from the Australian Taxation Office (ATO), in which case the GST is recognised as part of the cost of acquisition of the asset or as part of the expense item applicable; and
- receivables and payables, which are stated with the amount of GST included.

Cash flows are included in the Statement of Cash Flows on a gross basis. However, the GST components of cash flows arising from investing and financing activities are recoverable from, or payable to, the ATO are classified as operating cash flows.

Objectives

AFF's objectives are:

- to present an annual festival which celebrates and explores contemporary Australian and international screen culture with a unique
- program of screenings and special events, which aim to increase audience knowledge and participation.

- to increase and stimulate innovative and new screen production through the provision of equity finance for the premiering at

the Festival

- to raise the profile of arts and screen culture in South Australia for audiences and practitioners.

The Adelaide Film Festival facilitates the Adelaide Film Festival Investment Fund (AFFIF). The AFFIF balance must be used for investment in film projects or reasonable administration costs of administering the AFFIF (refer Note 14).

Activities

AFF undertakes the following activities:

- The Adelaide Film Festival was established in 2003 to present a biennial festival. From 2022-23 the festival was presented annually in October.

Significant transactions with government related entities

The AFF has no significant transactions with government related entities except as disclosed elsewhere in these financial statements.

Note 2 Employee related expenses

Employment on-costs - other	7	4
Total employee related expenses	1,133	946

Employment on-costs - superannuation

The superannuation employment on-cost charge represents the AFF's contributions to superannuation plans in respect of current services of current employees.

Key Management Personnel

Key management personnel of AFF include the Minister, the Chief Executive Officer and the eight members of the Board who have responsibility for the strategic direction and management of AFF.

Total compensation for key management personnel was $169,000 in 2023-24 and $155,000 in 2022-23.

The compensation disclosed in this note excludes salaries and other benefits the Minister receives. The Minister's remuneration and allowances are set by the Parliamentary Remuneration Act 1990 and the Remuneration Tribunal of SA respectively and are payable from the Consolidated Account (via the Department of Treasury and Finance) under section 6 the Parliamentary Remuneration Act 1990.

Transactions with key management personnel and other related parties

There were no transactions with key management personnel and other related parties.

Employee related liabilities accrue as a result of services provided up to the reporting date that remain unpaid.

Annual leave

The annual leave liability is expected to be payable in full within 12 months and is measured at the undiscounted amount expected to be paid.

Long Service Leave

The long service leave liability is expected to be payable beyond 12 months and is measured at the undiscounted amount expected to be paid.

Employment on-costs

Employment on-costs include ReturnToWorkSA levies and superannuation contributions and are settled when the respective employee benefits they relate to are discharged. AFF makes contributions to several State Government and externally managed superannuation schemes. These contributions are treated as an expense when they occur. There is no liability for payments to beneficiaries as they have been assumed by the respective superannuation schemes.

In preparation for the Festival to be held in October 2024, the AFF commenced receiving various sources of revenue in the 2023-24 financial year. Funding received during the financial year is recognised as contract liabilities when it meets the AASB 15 recognition criteria and will be recognised as revenue in the financial year when the performance obligations have been met.

Note 14 Adelaide Film Festival Investment Fund

The Adelaide Film Festival Investment Fund (AFFIF) was established to capitalise on local and national creative strengths in order to:

- boost producation in the State;

- increase business and employment opportunities in the State; and

- enhance the State's national and international reputation as a centre of independent screen creativity and innovation.

The closing balance of the AFFIF is included in total cash and cash equivalents at 30 June (refer Note 8).

The AFFIF balance must be used for investment in film projects or reasonable administration costs of administering the AFFIF.
